Mr. Clarke & all of the teaching staff would like to send a massive CONGRATULATIONS to all of our children during this week of national testing.

The children have approached the tests with real maturity and resilience and taken everything totally in their stride.

As a result of such positivity every child has been awarded this weeks BBB star of the week.

A Hint of Snow White School Christmas Production

Tickets are still on sale but becoming limited for the evening performance.

Cost is £4 per ticket

Please send in an envelope to the office with child's name, amount required and specify which performance.

With the colder weather can we ask that children wear appropriate clothes to school and have a coat with them as we do try to spend time outside wherever possible.
